

Monday 1/15	Martin Luther King Jr. Day
Tuesday 1/16	PROMPT #1 T-Shirt Message Directions: Let your clothes do the talking for you! Choose a character from your reading and create a T-shirt design that the character might wear. The design should express something the character believes in, indicate what he or she is experiencing, that is meaningful to him or her. Use both words and pictures. After your design is complete, explain your thinking in a brief paragraph.
Wednesday 1/17	PROMPT #2 Bumper Sticker Directions: Bumper stickers are a great way to show what you're all about. After reading, choose a main character and create a collection of bumper-sticker slogans that he or she might have on his or her vehicle. After creating five possibilities, choose your favorite and write it on the bumper below. Use pictures, words, and colors to make a definite statement!
Thursday 1/18	PROMPT #3 Sticky-Notes Patrol! Directions: Get three sticky notes and write your name (small) in the upper right-hand corner of each one. Label the sticky notes across the top with the following phrases: "An Important Event," "That's News to Me," and "I Wish I Were There." As you read tonight, think about these three phrases. After your reading write a brief PARAGRAPH for each phrase. Tape the sticky notes onto your sheet for tonight.
Friday 1/19	BREAK NIGHT Check over your log. Check spelling, organization and punctuation. Please make sure your entries give enough information to make sense.
Weekend 1/20~1/21	PROMPT #4 Fill in the hopscotch squares with information from your reading. When you've finished filling in your "hopscotch," you should have a brief summary of your reading! You must get the HOPSCOTCH sheet and put it in your binder.
