

Monday 1/1
Tuesday 1/2	PROMPT #1 Create a scrapbook page that a character from your reading might have made after his or her experiences. Create interesting shapes and inside the shapes add anything you think your character might want to keep. Add more objects if you like. Write a brief description of each item. Remember, the scrapbook page should reflect what happened in your reading!
Wednesday 1/3	PROMPT #2 It's doodling time again!! Doodling is a great way to visualize your reading and your thinking! While reading your book, spend some time doodling about the content. Your doodles could be sketches, shapes, words, or cartoons and should include information about the people, places, or events covered in the text or story. Use color to enhance your doodles!
Thursday 1/4	Prompt #3
Friday 1/5	PROMPT #4 Design your own prompt. Be creative!! Don't forget to respond to your prompt.
Weekend 1/6-7	PROMPT # 5 Who says the ending has to be the end? Choose a chapter from your book and continue it with predictable ideas. Create new ideas to continue the chapter. And three to five new ideas to continue a chapter of your choice.

Book Logs take time and commitment. Please put quality time into your reading and your responses. Initial if you read this!!!
