

Monday 1/2
Tuesday 1/3	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ Create a scrapbook page that a character from your reading might have made after his or her experiences. Create interesting shapes and inside the shapes add anything you think your character might want to keep. Add more objects if you like. Write a brief description of each item. Remember, the scrapbook page should reflect what happened in your reading!
Wednesday 1/4	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ It's doodling time again!! Doodling is a great way to visualize your reading and your thinking! While reading your book, spend some time doodling about the content. Your doodles could be sketches, shapes, words, or cartoons and should include information about the people, places, or events covered in the text or story. Use color to enhance your doodles!
Thursday 1/5	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ Imagine a tool that, if available, would have made a main character's life or job easier. Invent such a tool that he or she could have used during the event(s) described in your reading. Draw a detailed picture of your invention. Give it a name, label the parts, and describe how it works.
Friday 1/6	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ A feature often included in a new movie release is "Deleted Scenes." These scenes didn't make it into the movie but often provide interesting details about the story and characters. Draw a scene that might have been deleted by the editors of the book you are reading. Remember, a deleted scene would make sense if it were inserted back into the text!
Weekend 1/7-8	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ Who says the ending has to be the end? Choose a chapter from your book and continue it with predictable ideas. Create new ideas to continue the chapter. And three to five new ideas to continue a chapter of your choice.
