

5th Grade Home Reading Log

October 24 – October 30

Monday 10/24	Title _____ Author _____ Choose three characters from your reading. Based on what you know or can infer about them, what do you think they might wish for if they found a genie in a lamp? Use details from the text to connect their wishes to your reading.	Reading Minutes
Tuesday 10/25	Title _____ Author _____ Different people often see things from different points of view. How might a story change when told from different perspectives? Choose a few characters from your reading. Label each section of the page with a character's name. Inside each section, briefly retell what happened in your reading from each character's point of view.	Reading Minutes
Wednesday 10/26	Title _____ Author _____ The best gifts we can give usually reflect what we know about the person we're giving to. Based on what you read or can infer about a character, choose a gift that would be useful and meaningful to him or her. Draw a picture of the gift you would give one of your characters. Describe the gift and explain why you chose it.	Reading Minutes
Thursday 10/27	Title _____ Author _____ Choose a main character from your reading. What kinds of things might that person do during an average week? Include information from your reading, but don't just write about the things you read. Be thoughtful about what appointments, special events, or commitments that character might really have!	Reading Minutes
Friday 10/28	Title _____ Author _____ The contents of a wallet can tell people a lot about its owner. The items below fell out of the wallet of a main character from your reading. There is a movie ticket stub, a receipt from a Dunkin Donuts, a photograph. Fill in the details of each item with information that makes sense with your story.	Reading Minutes
Weekend 10/29 – 10/30	Title _____ Author _____ Which character would you like to be in this book? Why?	Reading Minutes