

5th Grade Home Reading Log

April 25 – May 1~Due May 1

Monday 4/24	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ It's Doodle Time again! Doodling is a great way to visualize your reading and your thinking! While reading your book, spend some time doodling about the content. Your doodles could be sketches, shapes, words, or cartoons and should include information about the people, places, or events covered in the text or story. Use color to enhance your doodles!
Tuesday 4/25	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ Create a poem that would make your character smile.
Wednesday 4/26	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ Explain the theme of your novel. Use evidence from the text to give an example of how the theme is seen in the text.
Thursday 4/27	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ What main idea did the author want to share with you? What thoughts or feelings does the author want you to have? What do you think? Do you agree with the author?
Friday 4/28	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ Create a conversation between you and the main character in your novel.
Weekend 4/29 – 5/1	Title _____ Author _____ Reading Minutes _____ Cornering the Conflict: Does the main character struggle with another character? If so, give an example. Does the main character struggle with storms, hurricanes, forest fires, or any other acts of nature? If so, give an example. Does the main character struggle with being afraid, lonely, unhappy, or angry? If so, give an example. Does the main character struggle with rules, laws, or customs that he or she is expected to obey? If so, give an example.