

Monday 11/14	Title _____ Author _____ Introduce your characters--tell who was in your story and something about them. Do not just list names of characters that is not enough information for your audience. Include words that tell or infer their character traits. Only discuss characters that were an important part of what you read during your thirty - sixty minutes.	Reading Minutes
Tuesday 11/15	Title _____ Author _____ If you were the author, think about one thing you would have done differently in the story. Perhaps you didn't like the way a character acted or you thought the ending should have been different. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What would you have changed in the story and why? 2. How would you have written it instead? 	Reading Minutes
Wednesday 11/16	Title _____ Author _____ Character Traits Think about one of the characters you read about. What character traits did he/she have? Give at least two specific examples from the text of how the author showed that trait or traits to the reader.	Reading Minutes
Thursday 11/17	Title _____ Author _____ Pretend you are one of the characters in your book. Write a letter to another character in your story. In your letter, write about at least three events that have happened in the book so far. Ask any questions you would like to know the answer to. Remember to include a closing and your character's name at the end.	Reading Minutes
Friday 11/18	Title _____ Author _____ Most characters grow or change over the course of a novel, do any of the characters come to learn something about himself or view the world differently?	Reading Minutes
Sat/Sun 11/19 - 11/20	Title _____ Author _____ Copy an interesting/confusing/important/enjoyable passage and explain why you chose it.	Reading Minutes